I am convinced that young women, our daughters - from the time they are the tiniest things - need to hear and know this passage inside out, upside down.

If we and they really know and embrace the truth God teaches here ~ what a difference it makes in ours and their lives.

This Psalm is a beautiful picture of God's thoughts and love toward us and it should be a picture of a daddy's thoughts and love for his girls. But family and fatherhood is so messed up in our day ~ many girls are not growing up healthy.

We walked through this passage today ~ verse by verse ~ for you as much as for your daughter. You must know, you must embrace, this must be on your heart. You must know it inside out, upside down.

This is God's Word. These words will train your mind to think rightly.

Your assignment today in your small groups is to begin memorizing it.

I have printed it out for you along with a worksheet for you to begin copying it.

I find that copying Scripture helps me memorize.

Psalm 139

O LORD, You have searched me and known me.

² You know when I sit down and when I rise up;
You understand my thought from afar.

³ You scrutinize my path and my lying down,
And are intimately acquainted with all my ways.

⁴ Even before there is a word on my tongue,
Behold, O LORD, You know it all.

⁵ You have enclosed me behind and before,
And laid Your hand upon me.

⁶ Such knowledge is too wonderful for me;
It is too high, I cannot attain to it.

⁷ Where can I go from Your Spirit?

Or where can I flee from Your presence?

⁸ If I ascend to heaven, You are there;
If I make my bed in Sheol, behold, You are there.

⁹ If I take the wings of the dawn,
If I dwell in the remotest part of the sea,

¹⁰ Even there Your hand will lead me,
And Your right hand will lay hold of me.

¹¹ If I say, "Surely the darkness will overwhelm me,
And the light around me will be night,"

¹² Even the darkness is not dark to You,
And the night is as bright as the day.
Darkness and light are alike to You.

¹³ For You formed my inward parts;
You wove me in my mother's womb.

¹⁴ I will give thanks to You, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made;
Wonderful are Your works,
And my soul knows it very well.

¹⁵ My frame was not hidden from You,
When I was made in secret,
And skillfully wrought in the depths of the earth;

¹⁶ Your eyes have seen my unformed substance;
And in Your book were all written
The days that were ordained for me,
When as yet there was not one of them.

¹⁷ How precious also are Your thoughts to me, O God!
How vast is the sum of them!

¹⁸ If I should count them, they would outnumber the sand.
When I awake, I am still with You.

¹⁹ O that You would slay the wicked, O God;
Depart from me, therefore, men of bloodshed.

²⁰ For they speak against You wickedly,
And Your enemies take Your name in vain.

²¹ Do I not hate those who hate You, O LORD?
And do I not loathe those who rise up against You?

²² I hate them with the utmost hatred;
They have become my enemies.

²³ Search me, O God, and know my heart;
Try me and know my anxious thoughts;

²⁴ And see if there be any hurtful way in me,
And lead me in the everlasting way.
