While many Christian women are familiar with the Proverbs 31 woman, few really know why this chapter is such a fitting end to the book of Proverbs. In the beginning of the book, young men are warned about foolish, seductive women who will bring them down. This closing portrait of a godly woman stands in contrast to the foolish women portrayed in the beginning.

Chapter 31 of Proverbs is a character sketch of a woman to help young men see past mere beauty and charm to real beauty. In fact, they are told to seek this kind of woman. Look for her.

Now the question becomes for each one of us - do we want to be this kind of woman? And if so, what kind of choices are we willing to make in our personal lives for it to happen?

Divide up into groups of 2 or 3 and pray Proverbs 31 for each other.
